

If not given the most widest possible coverage made publicly, easily and fairly available to all constituencies, this is in danger of violating our constitutional rights. Monies must be made available (budgeted) to allow this to be brought to public attention and public awareness.